

Call for Presentation Proposals

“Towards Global Peace: Strengthening Youth’s Involvement in the Global Nuclear Dialogue”

31 May 2019, Yonsei University, Seoul, Republic of Korea

The “Towards Global Peace: Strengthening Youth’s Involvement in the Global Nuclear Dialogue,” co-hosted by the Comprehensive Nuclear-Test Ban Treaty Organization (CTBTO), Institute for Global Engagement & Empowerment (IGEE), Yonsei University, and sponsored by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs (MOFA) of the Republic of Korea, will take place on 31 May 2019 from 9:30a.m.-12:40p.m. at Yongjae Auditorium, Yonsei University School of Business in Seoul.

The event will bring together ambassadors, experts, academia, as well as young people who are interested in the areas of peace, security, and denuclearization to discuss the ways to engage youth in the global nuclear agenda. It will include three sessions consisting of keynote speeches, presentations by students from Korea and CTBTO Youth Group, and introduction to the international organizations in Vienna. Keynote speakers will include the 8th UN Secretary-General and IGEE Honorary Chair Ban Ki-moon, CTBTO Executive Secretary Lassina Zerbo, and the 11th President of the Republic of Austria Heinz Fischer.

The presentations will provide a venue for youth to actively engage in discussions and share their views on the denuclearization of the Korean Peninsula. To this end, we invite submission of proposals from Korean graduate students on the following topics:
